

Aunt Birdie and Friends

Aunt Birdie joins her faithful longtime friends, Hughbert B. Bunny and Molly Q. Mouselkins as they celebrate the coming of Spring and the arrival of their newest bluebird neighbors... Mr. and Mrs. Tweetington.

Aunt Birdie is all gussied up for this special spring day wearing a beautiful calico dress with a petite floral print and coordinating gingham smock. Don't overlook the hand crafted floral appliques that coordinate, as only one would expect from Aunt Birdie, with her multi-layered ear bow attached with just the right button.

This entire spring vignette is mounted on a hand painted, distressed wooden base for Easy Display. Affixed to the base, a hand stained round tin bird house accented by a meandering of grapevine that is certain to provide a perfect perch for the two love birds all summer long.
